October 30th, 2009

Hot potato! This is our 300th issue of Portland Picks. Three hundred. That's practically Guinness Book-worthy, as far as "things we have done" are concerned. We've never held a job more than three years, never had a relationship longer than four years... heck, we've even had friendships end and pets "go to the farm in the sky" in under 300 days, let alone weeks! And you know what? It feels good. Heck—it feels great! Publishing Portland Picks is nothing if not rewarding, after all. Between the interactions with our BFF readers (keep sending those cards and letters!) and the amazing local business-owners we get to meet, it's like having a key to the city. Yay.

To celebrate, we're offering up the most giveaways ever!!!! All you have to do is forward this issue to 5 or more friends and CC picks@portlandpicks.com, and you'll be entered to win one of the fabulous prizes listed below (read carefully—there are a ton of amazing shops on this list) And yes, this is for real!

3 Tiny Bubbles

Portland's no stranger to the art of the microbrew. But beer as actual wall art? Well, that's a different story.

BevShots looks at beers, wines and cocktails under a microscope, turning the up-close images into vibrantly colored madam art. Pick by beverage or color palette—whether it's the bold balloons of an Irish pale lager or the purple swirls of a vodka tonic, the final product is sure to be an intoxicating blend of art and science.
